

Question #10 – Least Favorite Place in Cedar Creek – 105 Comments”

It's all good / Don't have one / None ( x23 respondents )

Group: Unsightly Junk and Debris on Property (x18 respondents )

- All homes that are filled with junk in yards
- All the junk cars that are allowed to be parked at many residences
- Any homes or empty lots that are full of junk or unusable items
- Any of the run down properties
- Any run down property and trashy property
- Ben B's properties
- Dirty houses that lazy owners don't take care of
- Every lot that has junk or discarded equipment - isn't there a law?
- Fuxa's dumpy stuff
- Junky houses
- Kip Fuxa's mountain of dirt, debris by park
- Messy houses and yards
- Neglected properties
- Properties that are not maintained with vehicles and junk in their yards
- Properties where junk is visibly stored in open.
- Run down lots and property
- Several property owners need to clean their place up.
- Various properties that have excessive junk vehicles, equipment, debris and deteriorated buildings.

Group: Railroad

- Railroad crossing / tracks ( x10 respondents )
- Railroad noise ( x3 respondents )

- Aults abandoned store ( x9 respondents )
- Main Street ( x5 respondents )
- Cedar Creek Inn (too smokey / mean people) ( x5 respondents )
- Cedar Creek Inn ( x3 respondents )
- Maria's ( x3 respondents )
- Ernie's ( x3 respondents )

Light House ( x2 respondents )
No Comment ( x2 respondents )
Taverns - Bars ( x2 respondents )
Aults; blighted parts of Main Street
Ben's house; Ben's sign for Maries; Ernies
Creek on west side of town
Driving on roads especially where water lines cross street - The rural water district should be held responsible for some repairs.
Lake 1 Park is an eye sore
Park and ball field
Park, Not enough parking near covered picnic area
Political lake meetings
Post Office
Run down building on Main Street
The Lakes
The old grocery store
The trashy/industrial across the road from the east end of Lake 1
The village store
Town
Town Hall
Water levels on the small lakes are way too low - find a way to raise our lake water levels